2018 House Rules Bremerton Elks Lodge

"Non-Elks visiting the Lodge shall be allowed 12 visits when accompanied by a member of good standing. Members must register their guests at the front desk and remain with them while on the premises and are responsible for their conduct."

On January 2, 2018 this House Rule will be enforced. All guests will register at the Secretary's office. An index card will be completed with the visitor's name and phone number.

Each time the visitor comes into the Lodge the date of the visit will be entered on the index card. At 10 visits the visitor will be given an application for membership. At 12 visits a visitor can no longer be signed in as a guest The Member who is bringing in the guest still must complete the visitor's sign in."
