Manhattan Dance Club in Tacoma

Please note: Two attendees at their July 28th dance tested positive for Covid 19 several days after the dance.

They are canceling dances until further notice.

After more than a year of no dancing due to COVID-19 the Manhattan Dance Club had started again every Wednesday. The dances will be held at the old venue, the AmVets Hall in Tacoma at 5717 South Tyler

St.. They will require all attendees to show proof that they have been vaccinated against Covid!

The Manhattan Dance Club is a friendly non-profit organization dedicated to the joy of dancing. The club normally hosts a dance every Wednesday evening from 7:30 PM to 10:00 PM. The dancing is a nice mixture of ballroom, swing, latin and contemporary dance usually done to live music. The dances are held in the upper ballroom of the AmVets Hall in South Tacoma. The dance floor is one of the best in the South Sound. It is very large and well maintained. The hall is located at 5717 South Tyler Street in Tacoma. Admission is $7 for members and $10 for non-members. On most nights there is a free beginners dance lesson included with the price of admission. The lessons start at 6:30 PM. No partner necessary.
